a value similar to that reported in malignant parathyroid lesions (Figure 2, panel C). One of the excised lymph nodes was metastatic, while soft tissues were clear of tumour tissue. Serum calcium decreased to 8.4 mg/dL postoperatively. On the 6th post-operative day, the patient was discharged uneventfully with a